Planning to Retire

What you need to do to retire

- Review resources available to enhance your pension
- Evaluate eligibility requirements for service or disability retirement vs. vesting allowance
- Establish survivor benefits
- Apply for benefits from partner agencies
- Schedule a counseling appointment
- Consider joining the SFDCP and maximizing contributions including special “catch-up limits”

Calculating Your Pension

SFERS Pension Formula

Service Retirement Benefit Calculation:

$$\begin{array}{r}
 \text{Credited Service} \\
 \times \\
 \text{Age Factor (see SPP)} \\
 \times \\
 \text{Average Monthly Final Compensation} \\
 = \\
 \text{Monthly Service Retirement Benefit}
 \end{array}$$

Enhance Your Pension

Purchasing service can increase your benefit

- Purchasing service can help you meet service requirements for retirement
- Service eligible for purchase is listed in your mySFERS member portal account
- You can purchase service any time prior to retirement by payroll deduction, rollover from another qualified plan, or lump sum (depends on type of service being purchased)

Reciprocity can help you qualify for retirement

- You can link service from reciprocal plans to qualify for retirement
- You leave contributions and/or service on account and continue to be a member of each system
- Your retirement benefit is calculated according to the provisions of each system
- The highest final pensionable compensation in any of the plans will be used to calculate your benefit
- Notify reciprocal systems of your desired retirement date.
